HUMAN SERVICE ALLIANCE OF BOULDER COUNTY HOSTS LEGISLATIVE FORUM

BOULDER, CO The Human Services Alliance of Boulder County (HSA) warmly welcomes interested community members to a legislative forum and panel discussion to be held on September 30 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Imagine!, 1665 Coal Creek Drive, Lafayette, CO. Local elected officials and candidates will present their positions on current and upcoming issues and legislation impacting the delivery of essential human services to local residents. Panelists include Sen. Rollie Heath, Rep. Dickie Lee Hullinghorst, Rep. Claire Levy, Boulder County Commissioner Cindy Domenico, candidates for house districts 11 and 12, city council members from communities in Boulder and Broomfield counties, and others.

The mission of HSA is to improve the quality of life in Boulder County by enhancing the competency and collaboration of human service agencies, and educating and influencing the public and policy makers on matters that impact the availability and delivery of human services. The Alliance represents over 1,500 employees serving nearly 40,000 citizens in Boulder and Broomfield counties. HSA member agencies deliver over $85.5 million of services annually to the area's more vulnerable residents.

Refreshments will be served. RSVP to Kitty deKieffer at the Mental Health Center of Boulder and Broomfield Counties, kdekieffer@mhcbbc.org or 303-413-6275.
